Exploiting vulnerabilities in Cellebrite UFED and Physical Analyzer from an app's perspective
readable on 01 Apr 2022

Cellebrite mobile software is marketed as a tool to automate physically extracting and indexing data from mobile devices. They exist within the grey – where enterprise branding joins together with the infamous to be called "targeted intelligence". Their customer list has included authoritarian regimes in Belarus, Russia, Venezuela, and China; death squads in Bangladesh; military juntas in Myanmar; and those seeking to abuse and oppress in

The whole thing is amazing to read through, but I just love the tongue-in-cheek finale.

Keyboard Conscience – Dilbert by Scott Adams

HELLO, HUMAN. I'M YOUR KEYBOARD'S CONSCIENCE. YOU SHOULD RECONSIDER SENDING SUCH A MEAN EMAIL.

WORKING REMOTELY HAS CAUSED YOU TO DEVOLVE INTO AN EMPATHY-FREE MONSTER WHO CARES NOTHING FOR THE FEELINGS OF OTHERS.

NOW YOU'RE JUST BEING A JERK.
